

A meeting of the Managers of the E. S. Free Library was held at Miss Stinson's, on Monday, July 1st. 1901.

The President being absent the Vice President presided.

The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer were read and accepted.

Miss Stinson stated the necessity of forming by-laws and it was decided to take some action at a future time.

It was decided by the Managers to open the Reading Room on Library days for the use of those who are desirous of having a quiet place for reading. The young ladies of the place to act as care takers for the afternoon.

A very interesting article was read by our Treasurer, Miss Stinson, showing how the library was started and carried on by a few earnest workers.

Miss Ireland felt that on account of her absence it would be better to elect a new Pres. but the Managers would not think of acting upon her suggestion.

The motion was made that we renew the subscriptions to all the magazines for which we subscribed last year. Motion carried.

Meeting then adjourned -

M. A. Fillinghast,
Sec.

A meeting of the Managers of the E. N. Free Library was held Sept. 17th, 1901.

The Pres. being absent, the Vice Pres. presided over the meeting.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted. Mrs. Nelson gave the report of our Treas. Miss Stimson.

A motion was made and carried that Mr. Woodhouse act as auditor for the ensuing year in the place of Mr. Herriek.

It was also moved that Miss Stimson's report be audited without further presentation at the meeting.

There being no money in the Treas. to pay the running expenses of the Reading Room, it was decided by the Managers not to open it during the winter unless the people wished it and money was raised for that purpose.

The Sec. cast a unanimous vote for the following officers: Pres. Miss C. J. Ireland, V. Pres. Mrs. John D. Hayes, Treas. Miss M. A. Stimson, Sec. Miss M. A. Fillinghast. Meeting adjourned.
