LONG ISLAND COLLECTION

DIGITAL LONG ISLAND

EAST HAMPTON STAR ARCHIVE

1965 East Hampton High School Yearbook, *Tideline

Do you remember how excited you were to first receive your high school yearbook? Perhaps you were on the football or track team, had a favorite teacher, or just a wonderful group of friends you didn't want to forget. It was a great way to record memories before moving on to bigger and better things beyond high school; a literal snapshot in time. As precious as these mementos can be, they sometimes become relegated to a forgotten bookshelf, not to be picked up again for long stretches of time. They're also slowly becoming a thing of the past, due in part to social media alternatives. If you have a yearbook you were planning on putting into storage or even throwing away, please consider donating it to the Long Island Collection. We have a large assortment of yearbooks, such as this 1965 East Hampton High School Tideline, dating from as far back as the early 1900s to 2013, with some gaps in between. You can view our expanding collection of these online on our Digital Long Island page, under "Yearbooks."

EXPLORE MORE

Included are searchable scans of deeds, drawings, etchings, inventories, letters, maps, paintings, pardons, patents, photographs, plans, postcards, prints, sculptures, sketches, textiles, tiles, yearbooks and more to come.

The East Hampton Star Archive is a fully searchable, online digital archive of our local weekly newspaper, that features each complete issue of the paper from 1918-1968, exactly as it appeared in print. Visit the archive online, for a tour of our Town's history that will fascinate both the amateur and professional historian!

Welcome to the Long Island Collection's "Item of the Week." We are an archive dedicated to the history and people of Long Island, with a special interest in all things East Hampton and East End. Unlike some small local history rooms in other public libraries, we have over 100,000 items including, but not limited to, rare books, maps, photographs, deeds, postcards, letters, new papers, and w haling logs.

We also have a dedicated and hardw orking staff ready to help you w ith any questions you may have. Unable to make it to the library? No problem! We upload images from the collection to Digital Long Island on a weekly basis, so there's alw ays something new and interesting to behold.

Please visit us at the Library, make use of our extensive online digital resources, or contact us for assistance. Our public hours are Mon.-Tues. and Thurs.-Sat. 1:00-4:30 p.m.
